BUCKEYE CAREER CENTER TO HOST FREE BIDDY CROSS COUNTRY RACE

New Philadelphia, OH (August 8, 2018) - Buckeye Career Center is again hosting a free cross country race for young runners in Tuscarawas County and beyond. The Buckeye Bidy Race is Thursday, September 13th at Buckeye Career Center in New Philadelphia. Day of event registration begins at 4:15pm with the DJ and inflatables opening at 5:00pm. Kindergarten through third grade girls race at 5:30pm, kindergarten through third grade boys race at 5:50pm, fourth through sixth grade girls race at 6:10pm, and fourth through sixth grade boys will wrap up the evening with a 6:30pm race. In addition to the free race and inflatables, each participant will receive a hot dog and drink, along with a medal. Top 10 finishers receive special medals and school district team winners receive trophies. Race Penguin is the official timing company for the event.

The cross country course is designed around the Buckeye Career Center campus and created by Energy Operations students. Participants will get to run around Buckeye's Natural Resources ponds and along the path that cuts through a wooded but cleared area. Buckeye Career Center students will staff a concession stand, provide water to racers, and showcase health-related demonstrations inside the cafeteria.

The race is free but participants are asked to pre-register prior to the September 13th event by visiting www.BuckeyeCareerCenter.org or <https://racepenguin.com/events/buckeye-career-centers-biddy-all-county-race/>. Buckeye Career Center is located at 545 University Drive NE, New Philadelphia, OH 44663. For more information or questions, please call 330.339.2288
