BUCKEYE CAREER CENTER EAST HOLMES CAMPUS TO HOST COMMUNITY OPEN HOUSE

Berlin, OH (August 6, 2019) - Buckeye Career Center's East Holmes Campus is opening its doors to the public for an open house, ahead of the beginning of the new school year. The event is Tuesday, August 13, 2019 from 5-8PM at the campus near Berlin. The East Holmes Campus offers two programs including the Buckeye Business Academy and the Buckeye Construction Program.

Students enrolled in the business academy learn keyboarding, office filing, graphic design, accounting, and participate in the career-technical student organization, Business Professionals of America. The Business program has been in place for 27 years and is taught by Mrs. Amy Stauffer-McNutt. Students in the construction program learn carpentry skills, framing, varnishing/painting techniques, and custom furniture building. Construction students are instructed by Mr. Jamie Garber.

Again, the open house at the Buckeye Career Center East Holmes Campus is Tuesday, August 13, 2019 from 5-8PM. Community members, alumni and prospective students and their families are invited to attend and learn more about the two programs, tour the facilities, and meet the instructors. Interested students can also apply to attend classes for the 2019-20 school year. Light refreshments will be served and no registration is required. The campus address is 4363 SR 39, Millersburg, OH 44654. The campus shares a drive with 'Tis the Season and is directly across from Hiland High School.
